

The California Attorney General's 2003 Summer Honors Program Public Rights Division

The California Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, is currently accepting applications from law students for its 2003 Public Rights Division Summer Honors Program.

Law students participating in the Public Rights Division Summer Honors Program will spend up to 12 weeks with one of the ten sections within the Public Rights Division. Summer Honors Program positions are available in the following cities and areas of law:

- ◆ Los Angeles: Antitrust Law; Consumer Law; Civil Rights Enforcement; Charitable Trusts; Land/Environment/Natural Resources.
- ◆ Sacramento: Civil Rights Enforcement; Consumer Law; Tobacco Litigation and Enforcement; Charitable Trusts; Energy Crisis; Land/Environment/Natural Resources.
- ◆ Oakland: Land/Environment/Natural Resources.
- ◆ San Francisco: Antitrust Law; Energy Crisis; Consumer Law.
- ◆ San Diego: Consumer Law; Land/Environment/Natural Resources

To apply, submit a cover letter, resume and writing sample to the address below. Please indicate the city and section in which you are interested in working.

Nancy Bell, Manager
California Attorney General's Office
Public Rights Division Summer Honors Program
California Department of Justice, 1300 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95814
Fax: 916-322-7622

The deadline for second-year law students is December 1, 2002. The deadline for first-year law students is February 28, 2003.

Work-study and volunteer positions are available. Additionally, some students may receive academic credit for their work. Public interest and other types of grants may be available to students for these positions.

Students interested in these and other employment opportunities in the Attorney General's Office are encouraged to visit the Attorney General's website at www.ag.ca.gov/careers/.